

HEATING & REFRIGERATION, INC.

About Us

At Laser Air Conditioning, we are fully committed to our customers' satisfaction. We will work with you to troubleshoot your equipment and determine the most appropriate solution that meets your needs. We have more than 25 years of experience in the HVAC industry, and we gladly extend our services to both residential and commercial properties. As a courtesy to our customers, we offer free estimates and will even provide second opinions for services that are quoted by other companies.

If you are located in or around Spring Hill and the surrounding areas, give us a call and put us to work for you!
